Public Invited to the Camp Williams Joint Land Use Study Implementation Project Community Open Houses

The public is cordially invited to attend open houses to learn about the Camp Williams Joint Land Use Study and provide input to the project team. Each participating community will have its own booth where residents, business owners and others can review information, ask questions, and provide feedback. Camp Williams will also have an information booth where participants will be able to learn about its mission, operations and important contributions to the region. Both open houses will be the same in terms of objective, content and City representation. Participation is essential and will help strengthen the already productive and mutually beneficial relationships that area communities share with Camp Williams.

Please stop by anytime between 6:00 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Dates: Monday, September 8, 2014

Tuesday, September 9, 2014

Time: 6:00-8:30 p.m.

6:00-8:30 p.m.

Place: Herriman City Hall
13011 So. Pioneer Street
Herriman, UT 84096

Saratoga Springs City Hall
1307 North Commerce Drive, St. 200
Saratoga Springs, UT 84045

The project's implementation area includes the southern portions of Herriman and Salt Lake County, as well as portions of Eagle Mountain, Saratoga Springs, Lehi and Utah County.

Funded through a grant from the Department of Defense-Office of Economic Adjustment, and contributions by Eagle Mountain City, the JLUS Implementation project is a cooperative land use planning effort conducted as a joint venture between an active military installation, surrounding counties and cities, and other affected stakeholders. The overall goal is to protect the viability of current and future missions at Camp Williams while accommodating growth, sustaining the economic health of the region, and protecting public health and safety.
